COOL TOOL

Ralph Henningsen
of Sebastopol, California,
introduced his Henningsen
circlehoe for weeding in tight places in May 1997.

hoe sense

Removing weeds from around plants is sometimes difficult with conventional hoes, which can scrape and injure plant tissue. Not so with the circlehoe, designed by Ralph Henningsen of Sebastopol, California, for weeding in tight places.... Kathleen N. Brenzel

Centennial Issue 1998

The circlehoe made the list (#50) of 100 most significant products and/or events to have occurred in Sunset's 100 years of publication.
